Subject	Computershare completes acquisition of Swiss SIX SAG AG

Olten, Jan. 3rd, 2017 – Computershare Limited (ASX: CPU) has completed the acquisition of Swiss SIX SAG AG (“SAG”, renamed with immediate effect to Computershare Schweiz AG) from SIX Securities Services AG. With this acquisition, Computershare, the globe’s leading provider of registrar services is extending its market presence in Continental Europe.

With the completed acquisition Computershare has taken over SIX SAG AG (renamed Computershare Schweiz AG) from SIX Securities Services AG as of 1 January 2017. The purchase includes share registry and Annual General Meeting services across Switzerland.

Based in Olten, Switzerland, with 18 employees, Computershare Schweiz AG provides services to approximately 220 issuer clients across Switzerland, including five of the country’s 20 biggest companies.

“We’re pleased to have closed this acquisition in Switzerland” said Steffen Herfurth, CEO for Computershare in Continental Europe. “It gives us a market leading position in registered share administration in Switzerland and a significant presence in local Annual General Meeting services.”

“We’re excited to have this opportunity to extend our core businesses further across Europe and look forward to welcoming clients and employees to Computershare. Our ability to add value to this business given its alignment with our core competencies provides tremendous opportunities for all clients and their stakeholders..”

“Increasingly, our Swiss clients are looking for international and cross-border capabilities in share registry and Annual General Meeting services. Computershare’s reputation and position as a global leader in this field gives us the confidence that we can facilitate a smooth transition for both the employees and clients of the new Computershare Schweiz AG,” said Thomas Zeeb, Division CEO SIX Securities Services. “The sale to Computershare not only guarantees continuity for clients but opens up new horizons for our staff and clients by enabling them to capitalize on Computershare’s wide spectrum of services.”
